Invite you to attend the
8th Annual KSU ESOL Conference

Steps to Success: Meeting & Exceeding Expectations

Middle School & High School Teachers: February 3, 2009

Elementary School Teachers: February 4, 2009 or February 5, 2009

Educational leaders will present breakout sessions on RTI, AYP, data driven instruction, proven classroom strategies, and best practices.

The breakout sessions will be organized into three strands to maximize the effectiveness of your conference experience as follows:

1. New ESOL Teachers - Specialized training provided by the Georgia Dept. of Education in WIDA Standards, Transact, CaseNex (ESOL online endorsement), Rosetta Stone, and other current programs.
2. General Education Teachers
3. Experienced ESOL Teachers

Participants will be able to move between strands to maximize their learning experience, however, breakout sessions will be color-coded as being designed for New ESOL Teachers, General Education Teachers, or Experienced ESOL Teachers.
