We at Georgia TESOL hope you will join us for the 2010 conference in downtown Atlanta at the luxurious, newly renovated, Hyatt Regency Hotel.

This year's plenary speakers (see left column) will provide valuable information regarding how we can be more aware of the risks and rewards of English as a global language, how we can professionalize and advocate ESL teaching and training, how we can motivate our students, and how we can best serve ELLs as they move from middle school to high school and beyond.

Our featured speakers include

Sandy Elbaum, author of the popular Heinle series Grammar in Context, who will demonstrate how to bring grammar alive through the power of story, and Jean Francois Vilmenay, a representative from Haiti TESOL that we are proud to sponsor.

Sessions will focus on effective teaching strategies, learning about current methods and research, and reaching beyond our current practices in order to better serve our student populations.
